CITY NOTES.

Pay your poor taxes and save costs. * Professor Weston last evening addressed the Men's guild in Penn Avenue Baptist church upon "The Church and Young Men." His remarks were practical and interesting.

County Treasurer-elect Charles H. Schadt subscribed to the oath of of-fice yesterday and later in the day it was filed with Prothonotary Pryor. Mr. Schadt is the first of the incoming officers to file his oath.

The free kindergarten will have their Christmas celebration on Thursday at 318 orchestra. Washington avenue, at 10.30 a. m., and at the Second church mission chapel at 3.30 p. m. All interested are cordially invited

Edward Clark, who was convicted of attempting to criminally assault 10-year-old Alice Powers, of Jermyn, and sentenced to spend two years and two months in the Eastern penitentiary, was re-leased yesterday, his term of imprisonment having expired.

P. H. Coyne yesterday entered a judg-nent of $5,000 against P. H. Gilgalion and had an execution issued on it which was placed in the hands of the sheriff. A levy was made on the stock in Mr. Gii-gallon's store on Spruce street, which will be sold one week from today. The joint streets and bridges committee dld not succeed in awarding the contracts for the bridges last night. It was found that the specifications did not call for as-phalt flooring and the councilmen were unable to decide just where they were at. They will meet again Friday night with the city solicitor.

Alderman Donovan on Monday, at the request of Henry J. Brennan, sate the warrant for the arrest of E. D. Lathrope, C. E. Lathrope and W. M. Lathrope, ed-itors and proprietors of the Carbondale Leader, on a charge of criminal libel. They entered bail yesterday before Alderman Jones, of Carbondale.

An interesting meeting will be held to night at 7.45 o'clock at the Grace Re night at 7.45 o'clock at the Grace Re-formed church, Wyoming avenue, when the friends of F. C. H. Drey will assemble to wish him God speed before leaving as a "Kingdom Tidings Missionary" to China. Rev. D. M. Stearns, a former pas-tor of the church, will be present at the meeting and his old assemble will be meeting, and his old associates will have an opportunity of renewing their ac-quaintance.

A regular meeting of Scranton council, No. 44, R. and S. masters, was held at Ma-sonic hall on Monday evening. The folsonic hall on Monday evening. The following officers were elected for the ensuing Masonic year: Comp. Charles B. Derman, T. I. G. M.; Comp. John W. Dusenbury, D. I. G. M.; Comp. Henry Archer, P. C. of W.; Comp. R. A. Zimmerman, treasurer; Comp. W. Haydn Evans, recorder: Comp. F. L. Brown, representative to grand council.

While Dr. W. F. Brady was driving in his buggy down South Washington avenue yesterday a man named King, of Abington, drove into the buggy and took off the hind wheel. Dr. Brady swore out a warrant before Alderman Fuller against King, but at the time he was not aware of his name. Later on in the afternoon officer Thomas Jones arrested the uefendant and locked him up in the police station, his wagon and team being placed in Summer's livery stable. Inquiring into the manner of Miss Bridget Casey's death, who was killed last week on the Delaware and Hudson railroad tracks near the Providence depot, by being struck by a passenger train, the coroner's jury met last night and heard the evidence of the trainmen. The jury, consisting of A. P. O'Donnell, J. P. Neary, T. J. Flannery, J. D. Ferber, Thomas H. Hull and George Donnelly, returned a verdict exonerating the trainmen of engine No. 16 from any blame. John Boyle O'Reilly counsel, Young Men's Institute, elected the following of-ficers last night: President, M. A. Mc-Ginley; first vice president, James L. Gaynor; second vice president, Edward O'Malley; financial secretary, John J. Variey; recording secretary, John J. Bro-gan; treasurer, Thomas P. Gorden; mar-shal, E. P. Mitchell; outside sentinel, Dr. F. L. McGraw; medical examiner, D. J. F. Saltry; chaplain, Rev. J. A. O'Reilly; executive committee, James Eagen, Edward O'Malley, Thomas P. Mullen, Thomas Gorden and R. J. Murray.

Another development was witnessed in the case of John Hanlon, of the City Boarding house, who was arrested re-cently by Officer Flaherty for making a charge of blackmail. After the arrest, Hanlon reiterated the charge and stated that ex-Officer John B. Coslett was the one who had levied blackmail. Coslett swore out a warrant against Hanlon upon a charge of libel. Upon being arrested yesterday Hanlon waived a hearing and N. Surovitch became ball in the sum of $1,500 so that Hanlon will now be com-pelled to appear in court to answer charges preferred by Officer Flaherty and

At a meeting of the Scranton Engineers' president; H. W. Rowley, secretary; Ar-thur Livingston, and C. C. Conklin, corresponding secretaries; A. H. Siorrs, treas-urer; John Svenson, W. A. May and T. J. Foster, executive committee. The elec-tion will be held the second Saturday in January. F. W. Gerecke, ex-superintend-ent of the Chicago water works, delivered an informal talk upon the pumping fea-tures of the Chicago company's plant. C. C. Hanson, of the Ingersoll-Sargent Com-pressor company, of New York city, and G. Stumpeff, of the Frazier & Chalmers ompany, of Chicago, were present as guests.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT

That Is What a Proposed Organization Will Work For.

PLAN IS NOW BEING PERFECTED

Movement Will Be Non-Sectarian and Non-Political-Project Was Discussed at Last Night's Meeting of Men's League of Baptist Church.

The question of municipal reform is under consideration by the executive committee of the Christian Endeavor union, the Young Men's Christian association and other kindred associations with a view to taking united action for the improvement of local government.

It is arranged that the affiliated assoclation having charge of the movement shall be non-sectarian and no allied to any political party. The detalls of the organization which are being drafted by the Christian Endeavor City union are not yet ready for publication, but the object in view will be to secure a clean and honest administration of local government.

It is not alleged that any definite charges of corruption are to be made against anyone, but it is believed that if honest, sincere men work together unworthy men can be kept out of club last night the following officers were nominated for the coming year: James Archbald, president; F. W. Gerecke, vice prevented from working intervals. rupt practices. The common council has, in particular, been mentioned by the promoters and will no doubt receive the attention it seems to deserve.

The movement was discussed at a meeting of the Men's gulld at the Penn Avenue Baptist church last night, but no definite action was taken in the matter, the larger movement being already in the hands of a formidable organiza

The detailed programme of procedure will be announced at an early date and its publication is awaited with considerable interest by a large number of citizens who have for some time been agitating the formation of such an organization.

THE COMING CONCERT.

Railrond Y. M. C. A. Brings the New York Philharmonic Club to Scranton.

One of the most deserving institutions in Scranton is the Railroad department of the Young Men's Christian association. The work they are doing in the railroad shops and among the Washington avenue on Friday, when trainmen is wonderfully practical. Over 500 men are enrolled on their s arrange the gifts as they are re- membership, and as many more pass cieved. The ladies of the guild have under its Christian influence every day. Once in a great while the Railroad department asks the public for their assistance in pushing on this work. They always give something for what they get, and this season they have secured well known New York Philharmonic club, whom Scranton people can never get tired of hearing, to give a concert for them in the Frothingham theater, Monday, Jan. 21. The club is made up this year of the following: Eugene Weiner, the flute virtuoso (the New York Herald says he is the best flute player that New Yorkers have ever heard); Frank S. Porte, the renowned violinist; Henri Haagman, the violincello virtuoso, the pupil of the great Leipzig conservatory; Sol. Marcosson, violin virtuoso; Paul Mende, viola, of Dresden; Paul Rohmig, double bass, who was for several years the first and solo bass of Dr. Von Bulow's orchestra in Hamburg, and Rubenstein's orchestra in Petersburg. Miss Clara C. Henley will be the singer. This talented young tonation, more brilliant vocalization, or, in fact, more marvelous voice pro duction, than hers. Persons who wish to hear this concert again must buy tickets early; the theater will be crowded with people. It will be the musical society event of the season.

The following society ladies are the patronesses, and are working unceasingly for its success: Mrs. H. M. Boles, Mrs. W. F. Hallstead, Mrs. James P. Dickson, Mrs. E. N. Willard, Mrs. James Archbald, Mrs. George L. Dickson, Mrs. Frank M. Jermyn, Mrs. L. G. Labar, Mrs. G. M. Hallstead, Mrs. E. L. Fuller, Mrs. C. D. Simpson, Mrs. C. L. A special meeting of District Assembly, No. 16, Knights of Labor, was held n Willard Spenser's comic opera, the in this city yesterday at which it was decided to practically withdraw from the national assembly of the Knights of expelled from the district assembly. It is claimed that for some time past I connected with it have been a disturb ing element in local Knights of Labo matters.

The resolutions are strong and forci ble and makedamaging charges against the national officers of the Knights of Labor. About a month ago the general assembly of the Knights of Labor convened at New Orleans. T. D. Hayes master workman of District assembly Friday and Saturday afternoons and No. 16, was selected to represent that body, but he would not be allowed to can says of the company that will be participate in the deliberations of the seen here in it; "The principal actors general assembly, which greatly incensed the local Knights.

Ever since the split in the Knights of Labor, District assembly, No. 16, has steadfastly remained true to Powderly Agnott captured the audience with her and consequently became involved in eleverness, and John Morris, who took difficulties with the general officers of the part of the Irish comedian, kept the order. The culmination of these the house in a continuous roar of laugh- strained relations was the action of the ussembly yesterday withdrawing from the general assembly. The resolutions adopted are as follows:

Whereas. The vilest method resorted to by the Tammany regime of New York, as exposed by the Lexow committee, were trade on and sell during the coming presidential election of 1896.
